Appreciate Camp Au Sable? Find a camp ranger and ask how you can help.

Camp au Sable is a Seventh-day Adventist camping and recreation facility located in northern Michigan on 800 wooded acres. Beautiful Lake Shellenbarger comprises 100 acres of the facility and provides opportunities for numerous water activities.

A series of hiking trails, including a boardwalk that completely encircles the lake, and one of Michigan's finest Nature Centers offer a chance to commune with God through the wonders of the natural world.

Please Note

- Parents are responsible for their children at all times
- Liability waivers are required for horseback riding and go-carts. Consider your abilities and use good sense when participating in all activities.
- Flotation vests and seats are required for canoe, sailboat and pontoon use.
- Helmets must be worn by all bicyclists.
- Pets are only allowed in travel-trailer area and must be kept on a 6-foot leash.
- Please observe quiet times—10 pm Friday night and 11 pm Saturday night.
- Clean up your area before leaving camp.

Directions to camp — Camp au Sable is located just east of Grayling, Michigan. When traveling northbound on I-75, exit left at the Grayling exit. Proceed into town, then turn right on M-72 east.

Look for the Camp au Sable arrowhead sign on the right (after going under the I-75 overpass).
